

Pension Transitional Arrangement Directorate

6th September 2017.

PRESS RELEASE

NEW DIRECTORS FOR PTAD

To reposition the Pension Transitional Arrangement Directorate for better service delivery in its mandate, the Directorate has announced the appointment of Mrs. Ndidi Egwuatu as Director, Civil Service Pension Department and Mrs. Olufunmilayo Onafowokan as Director, Pension Support Service Department.

Mrs. Egwuatu who has a Masters degree in International Law and Diplomacy was until her appointment an acting Chief Risk Officer as part of her many years of experience in the banking industry.

Mrs. Onafowokan who is a Fellow, Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria has had various experiences in financial control and auditing in the private sector and educational service.

Their appointments take immediate effect.

Still on re-energizing the Directorate, the following officers have been made substantive Directors

They are Babagana Kaigama, Director Police Pension Department, Charles Wali, Director, Parastatals Pension Department and Sulayman Yusuff-Shelleng, Director, Corporate Services Department.

The Directorate assures the public that it remains committed to fulfilling its responsibilities to pensioners under the Defined Benefit Scheme (DBS).

Signed

Management.